MY APPROACH

I love that every wedding is completely different and unique.

My goal is to capture events as they naturally unfold: real moments and emotions. I try to blend in and document what is naturally occurring on your day without too much direction or posing.

Your wedding is a personal story about you and your relationships with the people you love most.
I am there to document the beauty of those relationships.

CONGRATS!

It's time to pop the champagne and celebrate. Getting married is one of the most important moments in your life and I'm so excited to join you on this journey!

Your wedding is an intimate day, full of raw emotions and special moments. I want your photos to be a real authentic record of what your day really felt like.

"Thankyou,Thankyou for capturing our day perfectly! I'm so happy with our photos.... Bravo! We had such a fantastic time with you and you really made us feel at ease. We felt like we had known you for years as soon as we met you and you made two camera shy humans look amazing! We are beyond thrilled and so happy we chose you!"

HI, I'M NINA

It's Nina here, your photographer with a laid-back approach and a talent for capturing the effortlessly beautiful moments of your big day.

I am fascinated by humans, by relationships, love, families, nostalgia and emotion. I strive daily to find joy and beauty in everything I do.

My photographs show how I relate to the world – they're candid, honest, fearless and warm; and they always manage to find the amazing in everyone.

I would love to connect with you and hear your story; learn what makes you unique and better understand your vision for your day.

KIND WORDS

"We're so, so, SO glad that we had Nina as our wedding photographer. She had such a fun energy and made us feel so comfortable and relaxed in front the camera, Thank you, Nina, hands down the best investment we could've made."

A portrait session is a great opportunity get to know each other before your wedding.

These sessions have a relaxed documentary feel that impart a sense of story. The result is a set of natural images that reflect the real you and the connection between you.

ALBUMS

A treasured keepsake for generations to come

In this digital era, photographs sadly seldom get printed as they should and are therefore rarely viewed to their full potential.

On the plus side, gone are the days where film limited the number of photographs taken at a wedding. As a result, you can expect to receive more images that capture more of your day. However there ought to be a way to concisely present your photos, showing them off in the best possible way and allowing you to relive the story they tell with your loved ones. A fine art book of your wedding day is hands down the best way to do that.

These books, with their customised panoramic layouts, lay flat binding, matte finished fine art paper and luxury leather covers, are simply beautiful to behold.

Archival quality books designed to last a lifetime.

FAQ'S

Where are you based?

I live in Byron Bay Hinterland and I love capturing weddings in this beautiful part of the world!

Do you photograph internationally?

You bet I do! Nothing excited me more than the opportunity to shoot a destination wedding or elopement. If you're thinking of taking your celebrations overseas, please get in touch so we can chat about the finer details.

Do you photograph same-sex weddings?

Simply YES of course!

My partner and I are so awkward in photos!

Can you help us!?

You're not alone! About 95% of my couples feel the same way. Not everybody loves being in the lime light and it can feel a little daunting knowing the focus will be on you for your wedding. Please rest assured that a huge part of my job is making you feel relaxed and comfortable in front of the camera. I have a ton of tricks up my sleeve and almost all my couples tell me they loved having their portrait session and it was so much more fun than they thought it would be. Plus the result is amazing photos!!

How many photos will I receive?

Depending on how many hours coverage you have in your package. Usually around 700-900 photos

Can we split our payments?

Yes, that's absolutely fine. Let me know and I can organise a payment plan of four installments.

Are photos delivered in print quality?

Yes of course! You can choose any of your favorites and have them printed at your local fine art printers. I encourage all my couples to have prints made!

What happens if we need to cancel or postpone?

We all know that sometimes life can throw us a curve ball. That's why if you need to postpone I completely understand. We can simply move your booking to a new date. The deposit however is non-refundable as this protects my business due to turning away all other bookings for your wedding date. Thankyou for understanding that the non-refundable deposit is an industry standard and a necessary part of a healthy business.

Do you have any videographers and other vendors you recommend?

Yes of course! Let's talk... I have a good selection of solid recommendations in a range of different approaches. I'd love to talk over your vision.
